

UNSTOPPABLE.

Objects of true strength and enduring ability often start off as nothing more than an idea... then, like a wave, they can grow and develop, becoming more and more powerful.

For nearly 30 years, PFW Systems Corporation has been strengthening and building our IntelliDealer Dealership Management System (DMS) to help those in the equipment distribution industry better serve their customers and more efficiently manage their businesses.

While the latest version of IntelliDealer offers industry-leading features including full rental capabilities, unrivalled reporting tools, total system integration and the ability to be hosted remotely in an Application Service Provider (ASP) environment, we won't stop there.

For our customers to succeed, we can't just be the best, we have to be unstoppable.
